

Welcome!

The ice is in and our skates are laced. The skaters took to the ice with excitement and eagerness to the season ahead. On behalf of the Pickering Skating Club Board of Directors and Professional Coaching Staff, we would like to take this opportunity to welcome back our skaters and their families, and welcome all of our new members.

ICE SHOW 2010

The excitement is in the air, as the 2010 Ice Show is quickly approaching. Skate Canada Pickering Skating Club is proud to once again host a spectacular Ice Show. While this year's theme is still a mystery and under tight secrecy. Cheryl Hockley our amazing and talented Ice Show Director is working hard to produce a show of great magnitude. As you can imagine, a lot of planning and countless hours of work go into producing a show of this stature, so we NEED YOUR HELP. A sign up sheet will be posted shortly listing the various volunteer positions that need to be filled. These positions include: Chair or Co-Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, Security, Sponsor/Advertising Chair, Group Liaison, Costumes, and Program Chair. Any area that you could assist with would be greatly appreciated. Help make the Ice Show a memorable event in our community and to our skaters.

Can you guess the theme to this years Ice Show? Take a look at the poster and enter the contest. You could win a prize related to the theme.
